INVITATION

Come to my Hanging Out Party...

You are invited to attend a Hanging Out Party. This is an opportunity to talk about a “laundry list” of ways that we can save money, save energy, fight obesity and depression, and generally improve our community’s health and happiness.

I’m hosting this party on behalf of Project Laundry List program and we will be asking you to take action and join Project Laundry List – so, don’t forget to bring your checkbook!
